

Michele Throssell

Founder and Interior Designer, Michele Throssell Interiors
KZN

A designer who excels at creating spaces of paradise, Michele weaves her love for South African design with her soulful style to bring her clients' dreams to life in a personal way. Her adored interior design services are combined with a collection of one-of-a-kind handmade items to create a casual yet intentional glamour.

From large to small, every room that Michele curates proves worthy of her stellar reputation; her and her team were the winner of the Caesarstone Kitchen of the Year Competition in 2016. Of her many successes, her work on the Mala Mala lodge in Sabi Sands Game Reserve is one that speaks volumes to her talent, exuding local beauty and traditional luxury. www.michelethrossell.com

71

Anette de Jager

Founder and Interior Designer, 360 Design
Cape Town

Anette is an intuitive leader in the residential design world, one who dedicates herself meticulously to each project and guides her team at 360 Design to executing timeless spaces. Her background in design and fine arts offers a well-rounded approach in all her work, from minimalist interiors to the effortless inclusion of moody hues.

'My design approach is firmly rooted in the principles captured by Victor Papanek: Design must dedicate itself to nature's principle of least effort. Maximum diversity with minimum inventory. Consume less. Use things longer. Be frugal about recycling materials.'

www.360design.co.za

72